BIBLE BOWL

Every year at the Parish Life Conference (June 26 - 29 in Providence) adults and teens from the diocesan parishes compete in a match of Scriptural knowledge. This year's topic is First Corinthians; Our group is led by Emily Shay and today's session will take place in the church after everyone has had their coffee.

SOUPER BOWL AND WATER BOTTLES

While many were disappointed in the outcome of the Super Bowl, there is great reason for celebrating the Souper Bowl. The Teens of Saint George raised $270.00 for Souper Bowl of Caring. These funds will be given to the Norwood Food Pantry. Last week our Teens began selling water bottles -- and guess what, thanks to your support, they are all gone. A new supply should be here in a week.

LECTURE SERIES

"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

Psalms 119:105

A Year in the Company of Angels

February 23, 2008 at St George, Lowell, MA with Dr. Timothy Patitsas

After completing a doctorate in Systematic Theology, Dr. Timothy Patitsas felt called to undertake "field work" in Orthodox Christian theology, to test whether the theories about God he had been studying in books and libraries corresponded with the experience of those who seem to know God best - the contemporary saints and ascetics of the Orthodox Church. This talk will present anecdotes and stories from the fourteen months he spent living among those wearing the "angelic habit" at the Archangel Michael Monastery in Thari, Rhodes, and at the Monastery of St. George in Denver, Colorado.

Dr. Timothy Patitsas was raised in Kent, Ohio, and within the Greek Orthodox community of the Annunciation in nearby Akron. A meeting with Fr. Sophrony Sakharov in Essex, England, led him to abandon the career path for which he had been training at the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, and to devote his life to Orthodox Christian theology and to the Church. He currently teaches Ethics at the Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology in Brookline, Mass.

Open to everyone. Vespers service begins at 5pm followed by lecture and light refreshments. Suggested Donation $5.

SUNDAY 17 FEBRUARY 2008 • SUNDAY OF THE PHARISEE AND PUBLICAN

TONE 5 • EOTHINON 5 • GREAT-MARTYR THEODORE OF TYRE

Eisodikon

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ, O Son of God, who art risen from the dead, save us who sing unto thee, Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Troparion of the Resurrection (Tone 5)

Let us believers praise and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, born of the Virgin for our salvation; for he took pleasure in ascending the Cross in the flesh, to suffer death, and to raise the dead by his glorious Resurrection.

Troparion for Great-Martyr Theodore the Soldier (Tone 2)

Great are the accomplishments of faith; for the martyred Saint Theodore rejoiced in the fount of flames as though in the waters of rest; for being burned by fire, he was offered as delicious bread to the Trinity. Wherefore, by his pleadings, O Christ God, save our souls.

Troparion of Saint George, Patron of our Community (Tone 4)

As deliverer of captives, and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great-Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God, for our souls' salvation.

Kontakion of the Pharisee and Publican (Tone 4)

Let us run away from the words of the boastful Pharisee, and learn the humility of the publican, crying with sighs to the saviour, Have mercy upon us, O thou alone of true reconciliation.

EPISTLE & GOSPEL

Prokeimenon and Verse:

Vow, and pay to the Lord your God. In Judah is God known.

The Reading is from Apostle Paul's Second Letter to Timothy

(3:10-15 for the Pharisee and Publican)

Timothy, my son, you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, my persecutions, my sufferings, what befell me at Antioch, at Ico'nium, and at Lystra, what persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. Indeed all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, while evil men and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceivers and deceived. But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke

(18:10-14; the Pharisee and Publican)

Glory to Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee

Jesus said, "Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank thee that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I get.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Glory to Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee

*A Pharisee, overcome with vainglory, and a Publican, bowed down in repentance,
came to Thee the only Master.
The one boasted and was deprived of blessings,
while the other kept silent and was counted worthy of gifts.
Confirm me, O Christ our God,
in these his cries of sorrow,
for Thou lovest mankind.*
