Then two weeks later, join us later in the afternoon for Homemade Corned Beef and all the fixins.

BLESSED WATERS

Our Bishop JOHN, sixteen priests, four deacons and a cathedral full of faithful Orthodox Christians -- including many from Norwood -- celebrated the Feast of Theophany last week. During the service His Grace led the traditional Blessing of Waters. That water is available today for us and will be distributed after the Liturgy.

Our congratulations to Chris Abdelahad, son of Father Michael & Selma, who is being ordained a subdeacon today by His Grace Bishop JOHN at Saint George in Lawrence.

Sunday after the Theophany

Venerable George the Chozebite; Venerable Agathonos of Egypt; Venerable Dominica of Constantinople and Emilianos the Confessor

EISODIKON

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, who art risen from the dead, who sing to thee: Alleluia.

TROPARION OF THE RESURRECTION (TONE 5)

Let us believers praise and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, born of the Virgin for our salvation; for he took pleasure in ascending the Cross in the flesh, to suffer death, and to raise the dead by his glorious Resurrection.

TROPARION OF EPIPHANY (TONE 1)

When thou O Lord wast baptized in the Jordan, worship of the Trinity was made manifest. For the voice of the Father bore witness to Thee calling Thee his Beloved Son; and the Spirit in the likeness of a dove confirmed the truth of His word. O Christ our God, who hath appeared and enlightened the world, glory to Thee.

TROPARION OF SAINT GEORGE, PATRON OF OUR COMMUNITY (TONE 4)

As deliverer of captives, and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great-Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God, for our souls' salvation.

KONTAKION OF THE THEOPHANY (TONE 4)

Thou hast appeared today to the world and Thy light, O Lord, has been shown upon us. With full knowledge we praise Thee; thou has come; Thou art manifested; O unapproachable light.

Prokeimenon and Verse:

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous.

The Reading is from the Apostle Paul's Letter to the Ephesians

(4:7-13, Sunday after Theophany)

Brethren, grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said, "When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men." (In saying, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended is he who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia. O Lord, Thy mercy endureth forever.
Alleluia. For Thou hast said: Mercy shall be built up forever. Alleluia.

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew

(4:12-17, Sunday after Theophany)

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth he went and dwelt in Caper'na-um by the sea, in the territory of Zeb'ulun and Naph'tali, that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "The land of Zeb'ulun and the land of Naph'tali, toward the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles -- the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned." From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."
