Seven Steps to Stagnation

1. We've never done it that way before.
2. We're not ready for that.
3. We're doing alright without it.
4. We tried that once before.
5. It costs too much.
6. That's not our responsibility.
7. It just won't work.

PACK A WATER BOTTLE

Are you headed to Providence for the Conference this weekend? Be sure to take plenty of water, and why not take it in a handsome Teen SOYO Water Bottle. They are $10 each (and the plastic material has been deemed safe.) Pick one up at coffee hour from a member of our youth group.

MEETING OF HIERARCHS

On Wednesday, June 11th, His Eminence, Metropolitan PHILIP received the newly elected and enthroned Metropolitan of the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia (ROCOR), His Eminence, HILARION. His Eminence was elected and enthroned in May as the First Hierarch of the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia in New York City following the death of His Eminence, Metropolitan LAURUS. It was the first meeting ever of these bishops; they exchanged greetings and presented each other with gifts. They pledged to work together and cooperate as they both work to build up the body of Christ on this continent and begin a new chapter in the history of inter-Orthodox Church relations in North America.

ORTHODOXY IN AMERICA

The Romanian Orthodox Episcopate in America (OCA) announced that a Proposal to unite the two Romanian eparchies in North America under the Church of Romania would be presented to the Episcopate Congress. The press release stated:

"...the Episcopate Council voted that it (the Proposal) next be presented to the annual session of the Episcopate Congress on July 4-5 at the Episcopate headquarters in Grass Lake, Michigan. His Eminence, Archbishop Nathaniel has stated that he will place it on the agenda for discussion at the Clergy Conference, on July 3. The complexity of a potential unity of the two bodies, which have existed separately for some 60 years, will necessitate that practical, legal and financial matters, etc., also be studied and agreed upon."

"It was clearly stated that the JDC (Joint Dialogue Commission) had not been in Romania in February to discuss a return under the Romanian Patriarchate, and that any future relationship would have to be recognized as a step forward toward the inevitable, unified Orthodox Church in North America. At the same time, His Beatitude, Patriarch Daniel made a far-reaching proposal which the JDC considered to be a step in that direction. It therefore discussed the matter with its counterpart in the ROAA (Romanian Orthodox Archdiocese of America) on April 14, 2008. This resulted in a detailed 'Proposal to Establish a Romanian Orthodox Metropolitanate of North America' into a single entity, in canonical relationship with (not under) the Romanian Orthodox Church. The archbishops of both eparchies, NATHANIEL (Popp) and NICOLAE (Condrea), have given their blessings to forward this proposal."

SUNDAY 22 JUNE 2008 • FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST • ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

TONE 8 • EOTHINON 1

Eisodikon

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ, O Son of God, who art risen from the dead, save us who sing unto thee, Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Troparion of the Resurrection (Tone 8)

O Compassionate One, thou didst descend from the heights; thou didst submit to the three-day burial, that thou mightest deliver us from passion. Thou art our Life and our Resurrection, O Lord, glory to thee.

Troparion of All Saints (Tone 4)

Thy Church, O Christ God, hath regaled herself in the blood of thy Martyrs throughout all the world, as in porphyry and purple. Through them she lifteth her voice, crying, Turn with thy compassion to thy people, and grant peace to thy city, and to our souls the Great mercy.

Troparion of Saint George, Patron of our Community (Tone 4)

As deliverer of captives, and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great-Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God, for our souls' salvation.

Kontakion of All Saints (Tone 8)

To thee, O Lord and Author of all creation, the universe offereth as first-fruits of nature the divinity-bearing Martyrs. Wherefore, by their implorings preserve thou thy Church in perfect safety, for the sake of the Theotokos, O most merciful.

EPISTLE & GOSPEL

Prokeimenon and Verse:

Wondrous is God in his saints; the God of Israel. Bless ye God in the congregations.

The Reading is from Apostle Paul's Letter to the Hebrews

(11:33-12:2 All Saints)

Brethren, all the saints, through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might rise again to a better life. Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated-- of whom the world was not worthy--wandering over deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Alleluia

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew

(10:32-33, 37-38, 19:27-30 for All Saints Sunday)

Glory to Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee

Jesus said, "Every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven; but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven. He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Then Peter said in reply, "Lo, we have left everything and followed you. What then shall we have?" Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. But many that are first will be last, and the last first.

Glory to Thee O Lord, Glory to Thee

The Koinonikon

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: Praise becometh the upright. Alleluia.
