YOUR CHALLENGE

During the summer, Father Joseph put forward a challenge to everyone in the parish. While speaking on the importance of knowing about our Orthodox faith, he announced that this fall there would be a short series of classes -- a refresher course on the Church. The challenge is first, for each member to attend, but also to bring with them someone from outside the parish. The first class took place last week and there was an impressive turn out, but there is still room for more. NEXT CLASS IS THIS WEDNESDAY AT 7 PM. Other dates are Wednesdays, October 16 and 23.

DANCING WITH THE AABA STARS

The annual fund-raiser for the Arab American Benevolent Association is this Friday, October 11th, at the Norwood Theatre. Tickets are $45. The Saint George dancer this year is John Shalhoub. For tickets, see Florence Esper today at coffee hour.

OCTOBER IS . . .

In the Archdiocese we celebrate Youth Month in October and recognize our seminarians

Here at Saint George you will see our young people reading the epistle, passing the trays, collecting for Special Olympics and sponsoring next week's coffee hour.

For the seminarians, today at 4:00 at Saint George in Boston there is a Vesper service with Bishop JOHN, followed by a reception for the seminarians, hosted by the Antiochian Women. (This year, most of the archdiocese seminarians are at Saint Vladimir's Seminary in New York, which is why we don't have anyone assigned to us.)

AND, October is our church's month to support the Norwood Food Pantry. Please make sure you bring non-perishable food items or personal hygiene products and leave them in the basket outside the church.

CONCERT EVENT REPORT

Back on September 20th, our parish produced a concert at the Norwood Theatre. Under the leadership of David Franciosi and Joan Cassidy, with awesome help from so many volunteers, we put together a truly wonderful evening and a very successful fund-raiser for the church. The income was $28,912.45. Expenses were $9,461.88, and our profit was $19,450.57

We need just a little more help. It is important that we thank our sponsors. Playbills and thank you letters are in the parish hall. We would like to hand deliver as many as possible this week and then mail the rest. A list of sponsors is there too -- just sign your name to those which you will take care of on our behalf.

CHRISTMAS TIME

Yes, it still feels like summer, but now is the time to make sure we are ready for Christmas. Two important items need your attention.

First, our outreach program: Lucine Kouyoumjian has again volunteers to coordinate our gift program. Like last year, it needs to be taken care of early, so that deserving young people can receive their gifts on time. It involves picking up a box and signing up to help a child. See the poster below and then see Lucine at coffee hour today.

Secondly, our parish Christmas card is again being organized by Cindy Apgar. In the coming weeks you will see a flyer / sign-up sheet. Make sure you and your family complete it by November 10th.

But Jesus called them to Him, saying, "Let the children come to Me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God." -LUKE 18:16, ESV spread the word!

For 20 years, Samaritan's Purse has delivered shoebox gifts packed by caring people like you to hurting children around the world.

HOLY BREAD - The gifts today are offered by Father Michael and Kh. Selma Abdelahad.

COFFEE - Please stay for refreshments (aka tailgate) after the service, hosted by Father Michael & Selma.

GIFTS TO SAINT GEORGE

Sandy Thomas and Family . . . . . in memory of Paul Nessar

15th Sunday after Pentecost Apostle Thomas

EISODIKON

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ, O Son of God, who art risen from the dead, save us who sing unto thee, Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.

TROPARION OF THE RESURRECTION (TONE 6)

When Mary stood at Thy grave, looking for Thy sacred body, angelic powers shone above Thy revered tomb; and the soldiers who were to keep guard became as dead men. Thou led Hades captive and wast not tempted thereby. Thou didst meet the Virgin and didst give life to the world, O Thou, Who art risen from the dead, O Lord, glory to Thee.

TROPARION OF APOSTLE THOMAS (TONE 3)

O holy Apostle Thomas, intercede with our merciful God to grant our souls forgiveness of sins.

TROPARION OF SAINT GEORGE, PATRON OF OUR COMMUNITY (TONE 4)

As deliverer of captives, and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great-Martyr George, intercede with Christ our God, for our souls' salvation.

KONTAKION OF THE THEOTOKOS (TONE 2)

O protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, mediation unto the Creator most constant: O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned, but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee: Hasten to intercession and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost ever protect, O Theotokos, them that honor thee.

EPISTLE AND GOSPEL

Prokeimenon and Verse. O Lord, save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance. Unto Thee have I cried, O Lord my God.

The Reading is from Apostle Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians (4:6-15; 15th Sunday)

Brethren, it is the God Who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," Who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. While we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, "I believed, and so I spoke," we too believe, and so we speak, knowing that He Who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into His presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Alleluia. O God Who givest avengement unto me and hast subdued peoples under me. Alleluia. It is He that magnifieth the salvation of His king and worketh mercy for His anointed, for David, and for his seed unto eternity. Alleluia.

The Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke

(7:11-16; 3rd Luke)

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of His disciples and a great crowd went with Him. As He drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And He came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you: arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited His people!"
